LOCATION

St Monans is a charming fishing village in the East Neuk of Fife. Located 12 miles south of St Andrews, it is the smallest in a string of delightful, old-fashioned fishing villages along the stretch of the Fife coast known as the East Neuk. With several cafés and restaurants its main industry is tourism, fishing and farming. Recreationally there is a harbour, beach and the Fife coastal path for walking and running as well as excellent B roads for cycling and tracks for mountain biking. Education is provided by the local primary school and Waid Academy which is one of the top-performing secondary schools in Fife making this one of the most desirable places to live.
